Never Before Have We Reduced a Season's Stock to As Low an Ebb as This Spring and Summer Stock

OF CLOTHING. Our aim now is to clean up entirely. You naturally expect inducements to buy a light-weight so late in summer. If you will come in the inducement, both in merchandise and price, will have the desired effect—YOU WILL BUY AND WE WILL SELL. Our Shirt and Underwear stock will interest all that know quality and good taste. None like them found in any other store in town. By now every one knows that our Shoes are the best sold in Maysville. That we believe in them is evidenced, in that we warrant every pair we sell to give reasonable satisfaction.

The recent storm was very destructive in Fleming county.

Earl B. Wallingford has been appointed Postmaster at Epworth, Lewis county, vice G. W. Dale, resigned.

Mrs. Elizabeth Krellt arrived at Cherry Grove Campmeeting Wednesday, going from Ruggles Campmeeting, having spent two weeks at that place. A splendid report is out from Ruggles this year, a harmony among Preachers and workers good to behold. Several were greatly benefited and all helped.

A happy family reunion took place yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noble H. Richardson on Jersey Ridge, near this city. It was the first time for many years that all five sons were at the old home at the same time, and the first time that they, their wives and children had ever all been together. It was such a happy gathering the day seemed too short, so pleasantly was it spent in just the things they all most loved to talk about. Those of the immediate family were: The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noble H. Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Burr Richardson of Dayton, O., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Richardson and daughter of near Ripley, O., Mr. and Mrs. Reed Richardson and daughter of Moransburg, Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Richardson and daughter of this city. Outside of the family were present two uncles, Messrs. James A. Richardson, Sr., and Mr. Walter Marsh.

MR. WATTERSON is a sly old coon, but he doesn't fool even some of the people all the time.—Stanford Interior Journal.

THE United States Government is through with "thru" and all its sisters, consins and anns. Thus endeth another chapter.

BASEBALL umpires in America are in almost as much danger of being murdered as the Czar of Russia, and in many cities they have to be guarded by a cordon of police.

THERE are now more than 4,000,000 books in the British Museum, and they occupy more than forty-eight miles of shelves. Compare them with "Prof." ELLIOTT's "five feet of books."

THE chorus of opposition to the bill that is now going up from the Democrats in Congress is based upon the complaint, not that it is a highly protective measure, but that it makes an unfair division of the protection swag!—Courier-Journal.

It looks only fair that the band of howling free trade Democratic newspapers of Kentucky should let up a little bit and be satisfied with a reduction of $2.75 per ton. Tariff on "print paper" and the removal of the 6-cent tax on leaf tobacco. If Protection is good on hemp, why not on tobacco?

KENTUCKY's Mulligan Guards have got COXEY and the Awkward Squad both skinned a mile.

THE dirt will now fly faster on the Isthmus. The hot-air blast will be introduced when Mr. BRYAN arrives.—New York Post.

THERE is not much left of the old Democratic party but the name. In the farcical revision of the Dingley Tariff Law many of the so-called Democratic Senators and Representatives have sustained the Republican protectionists. The Nation is not going to be satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich Bill if it becomes a law, but what can the people expect of a Democratic House even if elected?—Owingsville Outlook.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER remarked, en passant, a short time ago, that it would be difficult to say which was the craziest, HARRY K. THAW or District Attorney JEROME. During the recent examination of THAW by JEROME the following colloquy ensued:

"Wasn't it true that you were known as 'Mad HARRY'?" questioned JEROME.
"Yes, I might have been called that," said THAW, "but the same thing might have been true of almost anybody. For instance, I've heard you called 'Crazy JEROME,' but for that reason I don't think you are insane."

CHARLTON H. ASHTON.

Charlton H. Ashton, 41 years of age, a bookkeeper for the furniture firm of W. B. Trumbo & Co. at Louisville, died of paralysis Thursday night in that city.

He had been ill for some time, and was bedfast a week ago when he was stricken with apoplexy.

He was a native of Flemingsburg, and a son of the late Charlton H. Ashton, Circuit Clerk of Fleming county for seventeen years. He served as Chief Deputy Clerk under his father.

He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Fannie Armstrong of Flemingsburg, and two children, William Armstrong Ashton and Henrietta Dudley Ashton.

The remains were interred at Flemingsburg.

MRS. LOUIE JANUARY.

The receipt of the sad news of the death of Mrs. Louie January, which occurred at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Watson Andrews, in Flemingsburg, was received here with expressions of universal sorrow and cast a gloom over her wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

She had been visiting at the home of her sister for three weeks, and for some days past had been in the care of a physician for a slight ailment, from which, however, she had been pronounced cured.

Yesterday morning she ate a hearty breakfast and was in good spirits. When the death summons came she was sitting on the side of the bed talking to her sister. Her demise was the result of apoplexy and she lived only a short time after having received the fatal stroke.

Mrs. January was a daughter of the late David Wilson, banker, of Flemingsburg, and was a most estimable woman, sweet in disposition and a thorough Christian, being a member of First M. E. Church, South, this city. She was of that class that delights in doing good to all mankind, ever ready to give a kind word or extend a helping hand. She was a noble woman in every relation—wife, mother, friend and citizen. Her death will cause a void in Church affairs and other relations in life that will be hard to fill.

She was preceded to the grave by her husband, the late Horace January, a number of years ago, and is survived by three children, Mrs. J. Clarke Rogers and Mr. Andrew M. January of this city and Mrs. Clay Lileston of San Francisco, Cal.

Her remains were brought to her late home in West Front street last night. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from the house, with services by Rev. B. F. Chatham, assisted by Rev. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church.

Interment in the family lot in Maysville Cemetery.

MRS. BAKER WOOD.

Mrs. Anna Curtis Wood, wife of Mr. Baker Wood, died at 1:20 p. m. yesterday at the home of the family in Forest avenue.

Mrs. Wood had been ill for over two months, suffering from typhoid fever, and notwithstanding the best of medical attention and careful nursing she passed away at the hour above mentioned.

Decased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirk and was born January 17th, 1831. She is survived by her husband and two sons, aged 3 and 5 years, and to her sorrowing family circle the sympathy of all is extended for the loss of a good wife, mother and friend.

The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from her late home, with services by the Rev. B. F. Chatham of the First M. E. Church, South, the interment following in Maysville Cemetery.

DRINK AND THE CHILDREN.

We give the following abstract from a paper read at Atlantic City by Dr. T. Alexander Mac-Nicoll: "Among the grandchildren of beer-drinkers there is noted an increased tendency to tuberculosis, diabetes, kidney and heart trouble. The grandchildren of spirit drinkers show an increased tendency to disorders of the central nervous system 29 per cent of the grandchildren of drinkers suffer from an autointoxication that appears to have become a habit. Organs fail in function and are unable to rid the system of waste materials. There is a chronic nerve depression and an irascibility of temper that enhances the troubles of parent, teacher and employer. Among this class the criminal instinct is prominent and suicide is not uncommon. Where there are no indications of chronic inebriety but where there is a confessed addiction to the so-called habit of moderate drinking, moral standards are lowered. There is a loss of one sense of perception that clearly distinguishes between right and wrong. While acknowledging the claims of ethics and religion, there is less ability to apply in practice ethical and religious teachings. They mistake the desire to do for the doing and fail to appreciate the possibility that a display of stubbornness may not be a display of will power. When poverty is added to a drink environment all shades and depths of depravity are bodily forces, mental, moral and physical. The heaviest burden entailed by indulgence in alcoholic beverages is not borne by the drinker, but by his innocent and debilitated children."

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Maysville Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back. A Lame, Weak or Aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far-away places. It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. Home endorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this case: J. M. Lloyd, farmer, R. F. D. No. 5, Maysville, Ky., says: "I am only too pleased to tell of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills and hope that it will be the means of helping some other sufferers from kidney trouble in finding relief. About five years ago my kidneys suddenly became disordered and for several months I was bothered by constant, dull pains across my loins. When I stooped or lifted, sharp twinges shot through my body and caused the most intense suffering. I at length heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore and began using them. They effected a complete cure, and since then I have not had backache or any other symptom of kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

GIVE YOUR EYES A HOLIDAY

Your eyes have been working at least sixteen hours a day and seven days each week, with no time off for lunch. Do you expect them to continue to do this year after year without assistance? If you can't go to the mountains or sea coast, you can, at least, give your eyes a rest by wearing the proper lenses to correct the errors of refraction. Headache, nervousness, indigestion, etc., when caused by eye strain, will be relieved at once by suitable lenses.

There is no one within fifty miles of Maysville who is as thoroughly competent to correct errors of refraction as
